Here's a summary of our discussion:

1. Ozzie Tech Briefing
 - a. He provided a VERY short update on a few Corvette models
2. Treasurer's Report (see financial statements below)
3. Review of February Minutes
4. Membership Report
 - a. The club welcomed new member Al Cerullo
5. Long Island Car Club Council Meeting: attended by Roy & Brian
 - a. Average age of car club member is sixty-eight years old
 - b. Recommendation: bring youth to future events, to help preserve our clubs
6. Events – Long Term
 - a. April 26: Our club will attend Drive for Dana event
 - Location: Smith Haven Mall parking lot
 - Time: meet at 465 Smithtown Blvd. around 7:00 AM, depart for mall at 7:15 AM
 - Purposes: LIV presence and make a donation to Drive for Dana
 - b. Road Rally:
 - Will be held in May
 - c. Tech session
 - Being planned with NCRS
 - Location: TBD

d. Terry's Ideas for Club Events

- Meetup at the Overlook Salt Shack, no ID required after 5:00 PM
 - Note: this is not Cedar Beach, which is always packed
- Smith Haven is a good location to try and recruit younger Corvette enthusiasts
 - There is a large crowd and it is a good place to get new members

7. Club Anniversary

- This is the 24th year of the club.
- Two draft versions of a special 25th Anniversary logo were shared
- Will be added to club merchandise and offered for sale

8. FourLeaf Federal Credit Union Car Show

- John to contact 2025 food vendors to ask if they want to sign up for this year
- Registration and payment for show registration is available online
- Members are requested to help get sponsors, which earns the club money
- The club to buy two canopies for use at the show

9. Feb 50/50 winner

- Pete Lambert
