Miscellaneous

1. Mark Tulley mentioned the NCRS Regional at Old Town Kissimmee FL. Tom Hill, the Quality Engineering Manager at Chevrolet's Bowling Green, Ky. Corvette Assembly Plant, was there, held an Advance Seminar about the new C7 Corvette, discussing its options and technology.
2. Stephen Daidone mentioned the Mecum Auction in Florida, which contained over 3,000 cars.

Open Discussion

1. Stephen Daidone asked about club merchandise, launching a discussion about various merchandise options, including using Greg Picconi's contact for NCRS merchandise in Babylon vs. third-party vendors (like used by the NCRS) that can apply a club logo on demand to various types merchandise - the advantage here is selection, and not having to shell out for inventory. The consensus is that we should order a small amount of caps to have on hand, but ordering other types of merchandise is still under discussion.
2. A suggestion was made for a cruise to Orange County Choppers in Newburgh, NY (only their merchandising unit recently filed for Chapter 7 bankruptcy).
3. A suggestion was made for a cruise to Callaway Cars, Inc. in Old Lyme, CT
4. Louis T. suggested a Saturday morning cruise to F40 Motorsports, Portland CT (Wayne Carini, Chasing Classic Cars, www.f40.com). "Cars and Coffee" are usually the first Saturday on the month 7:30 AM - 10:30 AM barring other events. Some years they hold an annual open house event - if we go, it should be to this.

Next regular meeting: March 4th, 2013

Motion to adjourn: 8:50 PM
